Har Ghar Tiranga Campaign

Date: 11-08-2024

Students proudly display the tricolor and their Air Force-themed band in the Har Ghar Tiranga Campaign.

On August 11, 2024, Metas Adventist School took an active role in the nationwide Har Ghar Tiranga Campaign by participating in the grand Tiranga Yatra organized by the Surat Municipal Corporation. This significant event was part of a broader initiative aimed at instilling a sense of patriotism and national pride among the youth across India. The Yatra witnessed enthusiastic participation from various segments of society, including school children, college students, and members of the public, all united under the national flag.

Metas Adventist School made a strong impression with its well-coordinated band and disciplined march past. Over 400 students, along with Principal Mr. Naveen Rao, Vice-Principal Mr. Prasad Ch., and teachers, participated, holding banners, posters, and the tricolor with pride. The school's band added rhythmic and patriotic fervor to the march, while the students, brimming with enthusiasm, chanted patriotic slogans that echoed through the streets of Surat. This vibrant display of national pride was designed to inspire young minds to appreciate and honor the sacrifices made by freedom fighters for the country's independence.

Different colours and cultures unite as one, showcasing the true spirit of national unity and pride.

The Tiranga Yatra was a visual spectacle, with the national flag held high by every participant, symbolizing unity and the collective spirit of the nation. The sight of thousands marching together, adorned in the colors of the national flag, was a powerful reminder of the strength and diversity of India. The event was further highlighted by the presence of several prominent figures, including Union Cabinet Minister of Jal Shakti, Mr. C.R. Patil, and Gujarat Home Minister, Mr. Harsh Sanghvi.

Their participation underscored the importance of the event and the significance of the Har Ghar Tiranga initiative.

Metas Adventist School's involvement in this event reflects the institution's commitment to fostering a sense of national pride and responsibility among its students. The school community felt honored to be part of this patriotic movement, contributing to the larger goal of building a united and progressive India.
