

LITERARY FEST WEEK

Date: June 19 – June 20, 2023

Classes: I – V

June 19 to June 23 marked an exciting week of literary festivities at Metas Adventist School, Surat, for students from classes I to V. This week-long event was designed to ignite the spark of curiosity and nurture the creative skills of young minds. Let's look at the activities during this memorable literary Fest.

Day 1 – June 19, 2023:

The Literary Fest kickstarted with a range of engaging activities tailored to each class's level. The Foundation class and 1st standard students participated in an exhilarating Anagram game, where they had the opportunity to rearrange letters to form words. Meanwhile, the 2nd standard students enjoyed a Word Search challenge, putting their vocabulary skills to the test. For the 3rd standard, a Memory game proved to be an exciting exercise in concentration and recall. The 4th standard students joined in a Word Search activity, while the 5th standard students honed their listening skills through an interactive session.

Day 2 – June 21, 2023:

The enthusiasm and excitement continued to soar on the second day of the literary Fest. It is said that young minds have a very sharp memory, and to nurture the same, Foundation class and 1st standard students engaged in a gripping Memory game, enhancing their cognitive abilities. The 2nd standard wizards were challenged to Find the Difference, sharpening their observational skills. The explorers of the 3rd standard embraced Word Play, exploring the fascinating world of language and puns. As for the 4th standard, our mystery solvers experienced the thrill of solving Anagrams, decoding hidden words within jumbled letters. Lastly, the 5th standard researchers tested their vocabulary skills with another exciting Word Search activity.

Day 3 – June 22, 2023:

As the literary Fest progressed, the students had the opportunity to showcase their talents and expressive abilities. The Foundation class and 1st standard students delivered captivating Speeches, showcasing their confidence and communication skills. The 2nd standard students impressed everyone with their impressive Monoacts, while the 3rd standard students participated in an Extempore activity, switching from their fairy tale stories to expressing spontaneous thoughts. The 4th standard students captivated their peers with enthralling Storytelling sessions, bringing imaginative tales to life. Lastly, the 5th standard students embraced the world of poetry as they demonstrated their creativity through Slam Poetry performances.

Conclusion: Throughout the Literary Fest Week, the students of Metas Adventist School displayed immense enthusiasm, curiosity, and a passion for literature.

The various activities organized during the Fest provided a nurturing platform for:

- Developing their creative skills.
- Enhancing their cognitive abilities.
- Language proficiency.
- Self-expression.

This literary Fest was a testament to the school's commitment to providing a holistic education, fostering the growth of young minds in a vibrant and engaging environment. The Literary Fest Week undoubtedly left an indelible impact, igniting a lifelong love for literature and nurturing the budding talents of the students at Metas Adventist School.