

Metas Adventist School Annual Function 2023: A Grand Spectacle of Excellence

Date: 18th, 19th, and 20th December 2023

Metas Adventist School Surat celebrated its Annual Function with unprecedented grandeur and innovation from the 18th to the 20th of December 2023. Breaking new ground, the school hosted the event live on its YouTube channel for the first time, ensuring that parents, guardians, and even grandparents could partake in the festivities from the comfort of their homes.

Live Telecast and Heartwarming Response

The decision to telecast the event live was a resounding success, with the school's YouTube channel witnessing a surge in views and eliciting heartwarming responses. This inclusive approach allowed those unable to attend physically to share in the joyous moments.

Enhanced Viewing Experience and Technological Marvels

To ensure a captivating experience, multiple digital screens were strategically placed at a distance, providing a better view for the audience. The stage, adorned with a digital background, set the perfect backdrop for the performances. The sound system played a vital role in enhancing every act, ensuring that the audience could fully immerse themselves in the artistic presentations. Multiple cameras skillfully captured every moment, preserving the memories of the event for posterity.

Event Schedule

The function spanned three days, with each day dedicated to specific classes:

- 18th December: Classes I to V
- 19th December: Classes IX to XII
- 20th December: Pre-Primary and Classes V to VIII

Distinguished Guests and Dignitaries

The event commenced at 6:30 PM each day, with Principal Naveen Rao and Ravi Kumar Peteti extending a warm welcome to the President and CEO of Metas Group of Institutions, Prof. (Dr.) Eliah Srikakolli, esteemed Chief Guests, respected parents, dedicated teachers, beloved students, and valued well-wishers.

Prof. (Dr.) Eliah Srikakolli: A visionary leader and mentor, Prof. (Dr.) Eliah has been instrumental in shaping Metas Adventist School into a hub of excellence. His dedication to education transcends mere administration, leaving an indelible mark on the institution's growth and fostering a well-rounded learning environment. Beyond his professional achievements, he is recognized for his compassionate leadership, open-door policy, and commitment to individual welfare. His vision and unwavering commitment continue to guide the school towards a future of limitless possibilities.

Chief Guests for Each Day

18th December:

- Mr. Vispy Kharadi: A thirteen-time Guinness World Record Holder and a martial arts maestro, Mr. Vispy is a beacon of inspiration dedicated to community welfare and VVIP protection duties.
- Guest of Honor - Mr. Vimal Gamit: An alumnus of Metas Adventist School, Mr. Gamit is the Assistant Commissioner of Police, Traffic, contributing significantly to community service.

19th December:

- Smt. Shalini Agarwal: An accomplished IAS officer, recognized for her innovative work in sanitation, global representation, and groundbreaking projects in healthcare and community development.
- Recognizing and Awarding exceptional talent – Ms. Maitri Patel: A Pride alumna and India's Youngest Commercial Pilot, breaking records and symbolizing women's empowerment in aviation

20th December:

- Smt. Sangita Patil: A prominent BJP leader and three-time representative in the Gujarat Legislative Assembly, Smt. Patil reflects unwavering dedication to public service.
- Dr. Parul Vadgama: A distinguished Chest Physician and Medico-Social Activist, Dr. Vadgama is recognized for her contributions to health, education, and social change.

Highlights and Recognition

The President and CEO of Metas Group of Institutions, along with the esteemed chief guests, felicitated students for their outstanding scholastic and non-scholastic achievements. International, National, and State Achievers were awarded mementos and certificates, with the achievers called on stage. During this momentous occasion, students' achievements were announced and celebrated on stage. The awards ceremony was a testament to the school's commitment to nurturing well-rounded individuals.

Theme-Based Performances

One of the highlights of the Annual Function was the mesmerizing array of theme-based performances presented by the talented students of Metas Adventist School. Each performance was a carefully curated spectacle, designed to not only entertain but also showcase the artistic and creative prowess of the participants. The themes chosen reflected a blend of cultural diversity, creativity, and contemporary relevance, captivating the audience with their uniqueness and vibrancy.

Under the guidance of dedicated teachers and choreographers, students brought these themes to life through dance, music, drama, and other forms of artistic expression. The stage transformed into a dynamic canvas, where stories unfolded, emotions were conveyed, and the sheer creativity of the students shone brightly. From traditional cultural displays to modern interpretations of global issues, the performances left an indelible mark, leaving the audience enthralled and impressed.

A Celebration to Remember

In wrapping up the Metas Adventist School Annual Function 2023, we not only bid farewell to three days of exceptional performances but also embraced a trove of enduring memories. The event, broadcasted live, transcended physical boundaries, uniting our school community in a celebration that resonated with achievement and camaraderie.

From the captivating theme-based performances showcasing our students' artistic brilliance to the inspiring words of esteemed Chief Guests, including Prof. (Dr.) Eliah Srikakolli, President and CEO of Metas Group of Institutions, every moment was etched with a spirit of excellence.

The infusion of technology with multiple digital screens, a digital stage, and a top-notch sound system ensured a vivid and immersive experience for all.

The event concluded with heartfelt thanks extended to students, teachers, vice principals, headmasters, administrators, and in-charges for their invaluable contributions, marking another milestone in Metas Adventist School's journey of excellence and holistic development. Expressing gratitude to all contributors, we bid farewell to this year's Annual Function—a celebration of talent, community, and the unwavering spirit of Metas Adventist School. Until next year, the echoes of these days will resonate, reminding us of the limitless possibilities that lie ahead, and the spirit of the Annual Function lives on in the hearts of the Metas Adventist School family.

